The following is our upcoming program. Meetings are at the Chelsea RSL unless otherwise stated.

Saturday 21 Oct		Edithvale CFA Trivia Night starting at 7 pm $10 per head BYO nibbles at Edithvale Bowls Club. Drinks very cheap at the bar.	Edithvale Bowls Club

This week at Chelsea Rotary – our District Governor, Malcolm Chiverton.

Thanks to John Shore for a very insightful talk on his two passions, racing-pigeons and real-estate. Who could know that birds perform such incredible feats? It just goes to show how much a nest and a home can mean to living creatures.

We are very pleased to host the Rotary District 9810 Governor, Malcolm Chiverton and his lovely wife Karen this week.

The Saturday of the week after that, it's a think-off! Yes, a trivia night at Edithvale Bowls Club at the trivial price of $10. Drinks are also at trivial prices, so I'm told. However drinking and driving is still not a trivial offence, so don't indulge too much if you're driving.

Cheers
Keith

Tip: Mechanics aren't just grease monkeys these days. They have to use computers just like the rest of us.

Vale Sue Fenton

From: Malcolm Chiverton

Subject: Vale: Rotarian Sue Fenton.

Dear Presidents & Assistant Governors,

It is with deep sadness I inform you that Rotarian Sue Fenton from RC Box Hill passed away on Thursday 5th October after a short illness.

Following is a message from President Tim Lynn RC Box Hill.

“Sue was inducted on 5 May 2015 and was an active and passionate Rotarian, giving valued service to our club as a member of the Vocational Service committee in 2015-16 and, most recently, as Community Services Director for the 2016-17 and 2017-18 Rotary years.

Sue willingly and enthusiastically undertook all the duties asked of her in accordance with Rotary's "Service Above Self" motto, and has served with distinction on the Club Board in her role as Community Services Director since July 2016.

We have certainly lost a loyal, conscientious and dedicated Rotarian and friend. Rest in peace, Sue!

Please keep Rotarian Rob Fenton (Secretary), their 3 daughters and the wider family in your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.”

Kind Regards,

Malcolm
